Call for Nominees for Excellence in the Field of Maritime Domain Awareness

The National Maritime Intelligence-Integration Office (NMIO) is pleased to announce its inaugural Maritime Award for IALEIA/LEIU for excellence in the field of maritime domain awareness.

The 2019 Maritime Domain Awareness Executive Steering Committee's Award applies to IALEIA/LEIU members in good standing. Candidates for this award have provided exceptional service(s) to their organization in any of the fields of maritime threat collection and analysis, interagency maritime information sharing/integration, and related system/policy development. These particular services have advanced maritime intelligence programs and improved the security of the maritime domain in their jurisdiction or of their nation as a whole.

Self-nomination is not allowed.

Submissions must have the permission of the agency or company for which the analytical work was done.

Nominees can be federal, state, local, tribal or territorial government employees; military personnel; or contractors supporting law enforcement operations.

Please forward nominations to Mr. Christopher Hickey, NMIO, at christopher.hickey@navy.mil and Mr. Robert Hall at robert.l.hall5@navy.mil by March 31, 2019. Please contact Mr. Hickey 301-669-2215 or via email with any questions.

The Director of National Intelligence, in cooperation with Navy and Coast Guard, created NMIO in 2009 to advance governmental collaboration and unity of effort as outlined in the 9/11 Commission Report, the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004, and the National Strategy for Maritime Security. The NMIO facilitates information sharing and collaboration across the Global Maritime Community of Interest, which consists of U.S. federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial governments; maritime industry; academia; and our international partners.
